1) A guard of six peons and a naik ~~has been~~ deputed for duty at the Sri Raghavendra Swami mate from June 1913 and the period of deputation is being extended from time to time (Vide notes in Mng file 43-19). The ~~latest~~ period of deputation of this guard sanctioned in G.O. no: 462-65/Mng. 642-17-4 & 9.8.18 expired on 5.6.1920.

2) In his Srimukha of 7th Aug 1919, the Swamiji also requested that the guard on duty may be permanently attached to the mutt. In reply, he was informed that it was not possible to sanction the Base Guard permanently and that the question of extending the period would be considered, if an application is made ~~before~~ 3 months before the date of ~~the~~ its expiry ie 5.6.20. 3) Though the period of last deputation of the Guard expired so far back as 5th June 1920, neither the Municipality nor the Chief Commandant has applied for its extension. Submitted for orders.

4) Recently the Hon'ble Minister ordered that in the case of the Sri Vyasaraja Swami matt, the town guard attached temporarily to that matt should be continued only till the end of June 1923 and then withdrawn. (Vide Memo No 120-21) Now that neither the Municipality nor the Chief Commdt has taken any action in the matter moving the Govt to sanction the extension of deputation of the guard, orders are solicited as to whether an order similar to that issued in the case of the Sri Vyasaraja Swami may be issued.

With reference to the remarks of the Secretary Member dated the 17th instant, it is respectfully submitted that the file about Sri Raghavendra Swami matt was placed for reference in connection with the Sri Vyasaraja matt Dasara grant papers, and what applied to the latter matt was intended to be applied to the former also. As soon as the Vyasaraja matt case was decided, the Raghavendra Swami matt case was taken up and worked up. The delay is however much regretted.
